ZAGREB

Welcome to Zagreb, the capital city of the Republic of Croatia. Zagreb is an old Central European city. For centuries it has been a focal point of culture and science, and now of commerce and industry as well. It lies on the intersection of important routes between the Adriatic coast and Central Europe.

When the Croatian people achieved their independence in 1991, Zagreb became a capital - a political and administrative centre for the Republic of Croatia. Zagreb is also the hub of the business, academic, cultural, artistic and sporting worlds in Croatia. Many famed scientists, artists and athletes come from the city, or work in it. Zagreb can offer its visitors the Baroque atmosphere of the Upper Town, picturesque open-air markets, diverse shopping facilities, an abundant selection of crafts and a choice vernacular cuisine. Zagreb is a city of green parks and walks, with many places to visit in the beautiful surroundings. The city will enter into the third millennium with a population of one million. In spite of the rapid development of the economy and transportation, it has retained its charm, and a relaxed feeling that makes it a genuinely human city.

Only in Zagreb is the noon announced by cannon shot, a unique mummy with Etruscan inscription waits for you, the smallest funicular in the world takes you to Upper town... Did you know that Croatia is a homeland of a tie, ball-point pen, and so much more...

TRANSPORTATION

Public transport

Numerous tram and bus services operate regularly during the daytime, whilst a limited number of lines are available during the night. To travel on Zagreb's trams and buses you will need to have a valid ticket that can be purchased on Tisak newsstands or directly on the coaches (Croatian Kuna needed; payment by credit card possible on Tisak newsstands, but not on the coaches). A single 90-minute valid ticket costs 10.0 HRK (\approx 1.3 EUR). A daily ticket costs 30.0 HRK (\approx 4 EUR). Tickets valid for 3 days (70.0 HRK (\approx 9.3 EUR)) or 7 days (150.0 HRK (\approx 20.0 EUR)) are available at ZET selling points (address: Frane Petrića 4, near the central square). More information about ticket options and prices can be found at: LINK.

Taxi

Several registered taxi companies offer their services in Zagreb. The prices usually range between 1 and 2 EUR per kilometre (plus a fixed start fee of 2-3 EUR), but this may vary across different taxi providers and depending on other factors, such as the time of the day, traffic, and type of the vehicle.

For more information, please call:

Radio Taxi Zagreb (1717)

Taxi Cammeo (1212)

Transport to and from the airport

The International Zagreb Airport 'Franjo Tuđman' (previously known as 'Pleso') is located 17 kilometres (11 miles) from the city. The easiest way to get from the airport to your destination in Zagreb is by taxi. The prices may vary between 15 and 25 EUR. Another way to get to and from the Airport is by bus/airport shuttle "Pleso prijevoz". The airport shuttle "Pleso prijevoz" operates between the Airport and the Zagreb Central Bus Station (a 35-40 minute travel time), following a timetable which can be found HERE. A one-way ticket price is 30.0 HRK (≈ 4.0 EUR).
