

BETTER CHANCES FOR YOUNG PEOPLE IN THE DANUBE REGION

INVITATION

EDU-LAB: New Danubian
Governance in Labour market
Relevance of Higher Education

Final conference
16–17 May 2019
Zagreb, Croatia

Invitation to the EDU-LAB Final Conference

»Better Chances for Young People in the Danube Region«

16–17 May 2019, Zagreb, Croatia

Dear Sir/Madam,

On behalf of the partnership consortium of the Interreg-project EDU-LAB: New Danubian Governance in Labour market Relevance of Higher Education with 27 partners from 10 countries, we would like to invite you to participate at the final conference of our project, entitled »Better Chances for Young People in the Danube Region« in Zagreb on 16–17 May 2019.

The final conference will be opened by Prof. Dr. Blaženka Divjak, Minister of Science and Education and Mr. Marko Pavić, Minister of Labour and Pension System of the Republic of Croatia. The event provides a platform to present and discuss efficient ways to tackle youth unemployment and brain drain, and at the same time to improve the competitiveness of companies and to strengthen the regional economic development in the Danube Region.

We will present lessons learned from our pilot activities regarding professionally oriented study programmes that could be applied in all countries of the Danube Region.

More information: www.interreg-danube.eu/approved-projects/edu-lab

As the highlight of the event, all EDU-LAB partners as well as further stakeholders will sign the »Danubian Charter for Young Talents«.

For further information please consult the agenda of the event. Should you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact the project director, Dr. des. Ágnes Sebestyén at agnes.sebestyen@e-f-e.eu

It would be an honour if you accepted our invitation.

Sincerely yours,

Prof. Dr. Wolfgang Schuster
European Foundation for Education, Germany

Dr. Caroline Hornstein Tomic
Foundation Knowledge at Work, Croatia